

Independent Legal Opinion

Is this legal? In a letter dated March 12, 2026, Lawrence Mortorff, counsel to NovaCast Television Network, LLC, stated that after reviewing the agreement with NovaCast's IPTV partner, the business model, and supporting materials of licensed content, it was his opinion...

Attorney Profile - Lawrence Paul Mortorff #57851

"I have reviewed the Agreement and as well NovaCast's business model regarding the bundling and distribution of a comprehensive IPTV package of licensed content, network programming and movies being offered through the streaming Platform.

Based upon the Agreement, documentation provided by my client and research conducted into the background and foundation of the Platform, it is my opinion that the service is a legitimate offering operating within acceptable industry standards."

Lawrence Paul Mortorff is a veteran California attorney, entertainment law practitioner, producer, and media executive whose career reflects decades of work at the intersection of law, film, and entertainment industry leadership.

Mr. Mortorff has been General Counsel for Content Management to the Trinity Broadcasting Network for the past 25 years. He has also served as counsel for Universal Studios.

Mr. Mortorff has maintained a strong connection to the UCLA entertainment-law community, placing him within a longstanding professional network of respected entertainment attorneys, executives, and industry leaders.

His broader professional standing has positioned him as a recognized, experienced and credible professional within the film and television business. For many years, Mr. Mortorff has been a member of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences.